

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

EVALUATION OF THE GRADUATE PROFILE

DEGREE: BACHELOR'S DEGREE IN HUMAN TALENT MANAGEMENT

Graduate Profile of the Bachelor in Human Talent Management

The Bachelor of Human Talent Management from Ecotec University is a professional who develops actions aimed at the proper implementation of organizational values, taking into account individual work experiences and business ethical principles, organizing strategic plans based on the institutional context, promoting the well-being of employees and the organization.

It is capable of planning human talent processes and sub-processes, fostering collaborative and inclusive work and promoting the well-being of employees and the organization.

Competencies of a Bachelor of Science in Human Talent Management:

The skills that the Human Talent Management professional will acquire are the following:

Competency 1: Organizational Awareness

Competency 2: Strategic management of people

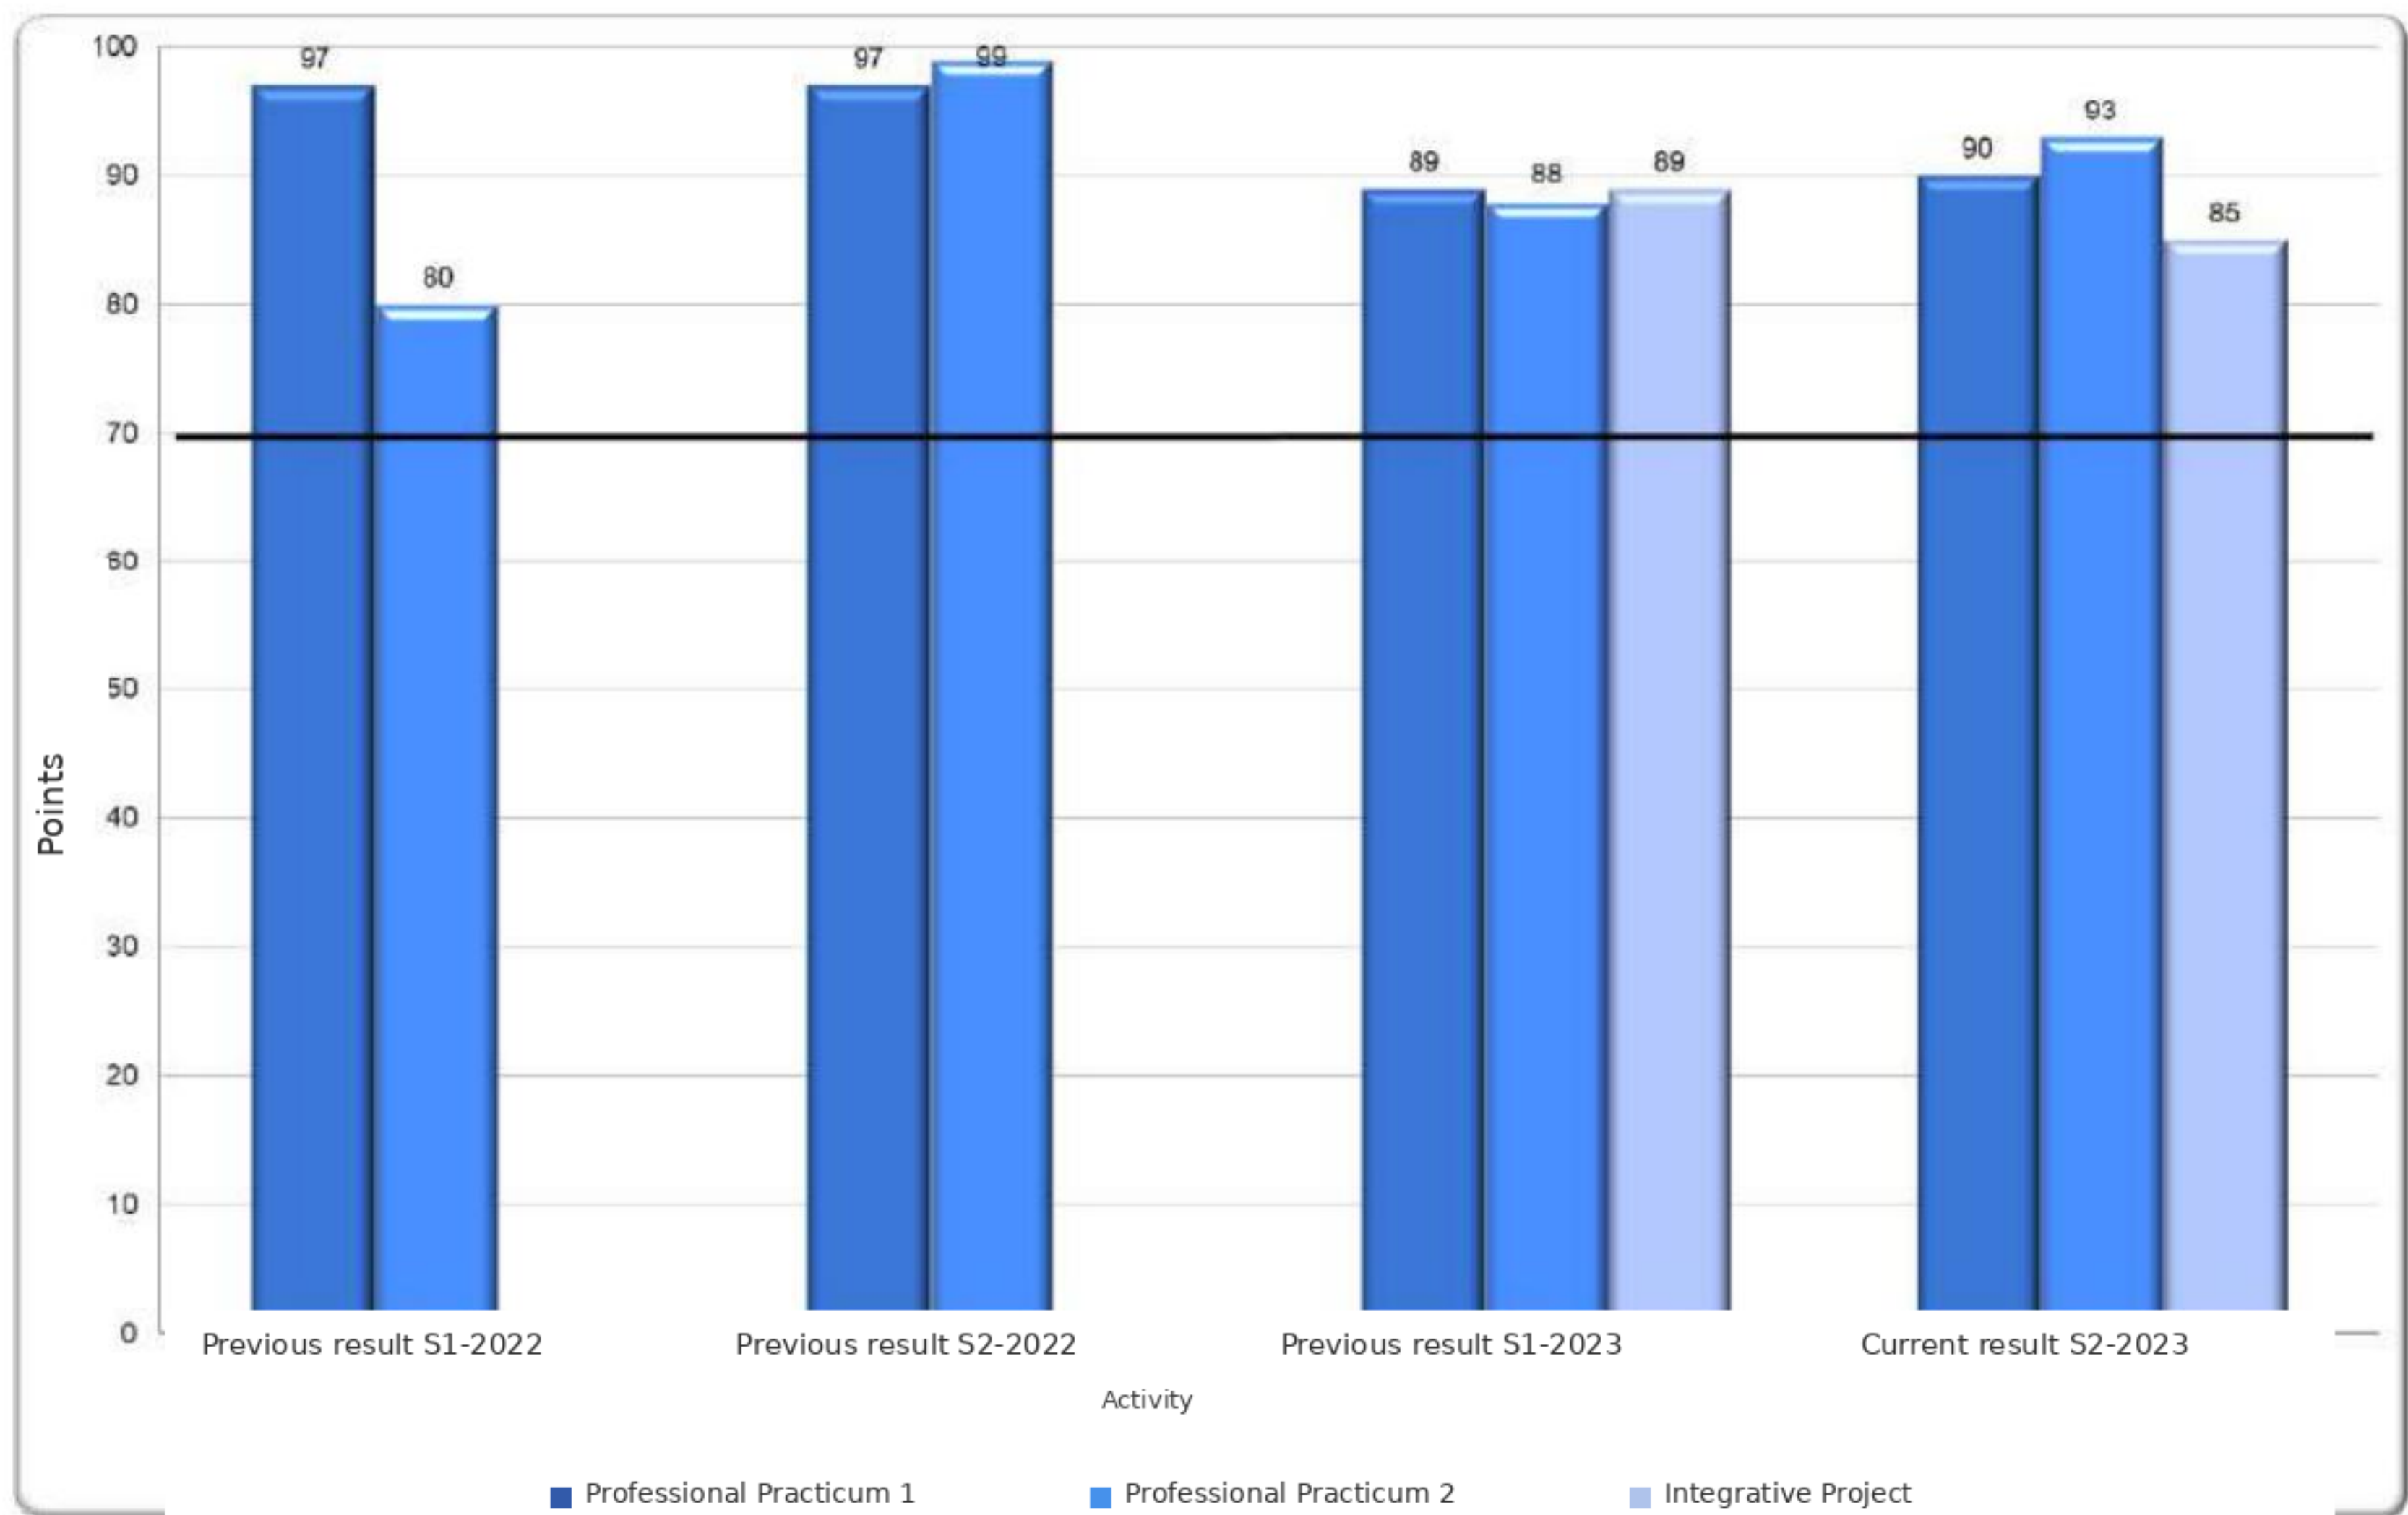

Competency 3: Human Talent Development

Competency 4: Conflict Resolution

FACULTY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

Bachelor's Degree in Human Talent Management

Evaluation of compliance with the graduate profile

Note: The results correspond to the average obtained by the group of students who participated in the evaluation process activities. Faculty of Economics and Business